Nora Belle Dixon, governess in the Swope household.

Leonora Copridge, negro servant in the Swope household.

Kansas City, Mo., April 11.—Dr. Bennett Clark Hyde was placed on trial here today for the murder of Col. Thomas H. Swope, millionaire and benefactor of Kansas City, who presented to the city before his death one of the most beautiful parks in the Middle West. The charge of murdering Colonel Swope is but one of many indictments found against Dr. Hyde following the deaths of Colonel Swope, his nephew, Christman Swope, and cousin, James Moss Hinton, as well as the malady of typhoid fever that swept the Swope household and for a time threatened to exterminate the family. It is alleged that Colonel Swope came to his death directly as the result of a strychnine capsule prescribed by Dr. Hyde. At the same time it is alleged by the state that he placed typhoid fever germs in the food prepared for the family with the intention of killing them. As a motive for these deeds the state claims that Dr. Hyde desired to kill off the heirs to the Swope estate, as each death increased the share which his wife, Mrs. Frances Swope Hyde, daughter of Colonel Swope, would inherit. Mrs. Hyde, who is in no way connected with the charges against her husband, stands by him and refutes all charges as base slanders.

The state places its strongest case on trial today and on the outcome will undoubtedly hinge the result of the trials that may follow. With this in mind both sides were represented by an imposing array of legal talent. State's Attorney Conklin will conduct the prosecution in person, assisted by John C. Paxton, co-counsel for the Swope estate. On the defense's side are Frank P. Walsh, former Judge William T. Johnson and several other able attorneys. It was assured by Dr. Hyde, himself, that there would be no delay in the trial. The physician insists that he is innocent. It is also whispered that a visit of the stork is soon expected in the Hyde home and for this reason the doctor is anxious to be cleared of the charges against him, if possible, so that he can be with his wife.

The case is certain to be one of the most bitterly fought in the history of Missouri. Colonel Swope was one of the wealthiest and most respected citizens of Kansas City. He died at his home October 3, 1909, but two days after Moss Hinton, a life long companion, had died in the same house. Hyde attended Hinton in his last hours and the death of Colonel Swope followed the administration of a capsule by a nurse, who later went to look for the box from which Doctor Hyde had taken the capsule and could not find it. Following this eight members of the Swope household were stricken with typhoid fever. Colonel Swope's body was placed in the family vault but, at the request of the executor of the estate, the vital organs were removed and sent to Chicago, where they were examined by noted scientists. They reported that strychnine was in evidence in great quantities in the stomach and liver. The coroner's jury then held Doctor Hyde responsible for Colonel Swope's death and later the grand jury returned indictments against him, not only with the death of Swope, but of Christman Swope, his nephew, and James Moss Hinton, as well as the poisoning by disease germs of the members of the household stricken with typhoid.

In the course of the grand jury hearing every member of the Swope family, with the exception of Doctor Hyde and his wife, appeared and testified. Mrs. Logan Swope, sister-in-law of Colonel Swope, appeared eight times and related in every detail the

MRS. SARAH LOOKER OF NEW WAGRAM KILLED BY INTERURBAN CAR

One of the most shocking and at the same time one of the saddest deaths that ever occurred in Licking county, was that which overtook Mrs. Sarah Looker, wife of Mr. D. M. Looker, one of the most prominent and best known farmers of western Licking county, residing near Wagram, on Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Looker had been visiting friends in Wagram during the early part of the day, and shortly after two o'clock started for their home. Mr. Looker, driving a team of spirited young horses as they were driving west along the old National road, the cage cage of an automobile was heard approaching from the rear, causing Mrs. Looker to become very nervous and excited. The noise of the approaching automobile caused the horses to become very nervous and Mr. Looker sprang from the buggy and caught them by the heads when Mrs. Looker cried out, "I know we will have a runaway," and leaped from the buggy, directly in front of the west bound 2 o'clock limited which was running as train 175, car 166, in charge of Conductor Samuel Bebout and Herman Thrall, motorman, both of Columbus. When the unfortunate woman jumped from the buggy she landed in the middle of the railroad track, and before she

How To Get New Boarders

Write to the people of Newark who live in boarding houses—write them a want ad message. Tell them something vital about your boarding house, some fact that looks big to boarders—some things that would interest you if you were reading the boarding ads, with the "moving" spirit moving within you. EMPHASIZE something in your ad. Location of your house—if that's desirable. Size or furnishings of rooms—the cooking—your terms—modern conveniences of your house—anything that might be a deciding fact with a boarder. THEN—Order more than one insertion of your ad! Three insertions of a six-line ad, 50 cents.

PERUVIAN SITUATION IS DESPERATE

Dispatches from Peru state that the political situation in that country is desperate. The state department at Washington looks with alarm on the entanglements of the South American Republic. Ecuador is not alone in her enmity toward Peru. Chili, Colombia and Bolivia are also said to be lined up against her and a general war over the Peruvian boundary lines is expected to result. The pious Peruvians are under arms and despite the fact that their army numbers but 4000, troops are preparing to meet the united forces of the countries who are against them. The recent rioting at Lima when students attacked the Ecuadorian consul and at Guayaquil where the Peruvian consul was forced to fly for his life has been reported at Washington.

WICKERSHAM HAS LAUNCHED SECOND TERM BOOM FOR TAFT

Chicago, April 11.—There is a certainty that before Mr. Taft's term expires new questions of great importance, some of which I have in mind, will develop and demand disposition. Under such circumstances there would be or might arise the desirability of another term for the present executive.

This is the way Attorney General Wickersham started a second term boom for President Taft just before he departed for Washington. The attorney general added that he intended to tell the chief executive that the movement in the west would not result in a party split.

BIPLANE AND AVIATOR FELL FROM HEIGHT OF 75 FEET ON A CROWDED TOURING CAR

Memphis, Tenn., April 11.—Plunging downward from a height of 75 feet in a Curtiss biplane, at the aviation track here yesterday, J. C. Mars alighted on top of a seven passenger touring car and narrowly missed being killed. In the car were seated three women and two children.

The canopy top over the touring car saved the lives of its occupants, only one of whom was slightly injured.

The biplane smashed into the car and Mars was caught under the wreckage but escaped with no injury worse than a badly bruised and wrenched knee and a slight cut on his chin.

In the automobile when the aeroplane crashed into it were Mrs. Edward Ritter, Miss Edna Ritter, Louis Ritter, Mrs. Wilmer Smith and child, all of this city. Mrs. Ritter was the only one to be injured, receiving a slight cut in the shoulder.

Mr. Ritter was standing at the side of the car, having just finished fastening up the canopy top. He was knocked down by one of the planes of the flying machine.

The accident brought to a thrilling close Memphis' first aviation meet. Thousands of people followed the aviator in his flight across the mile course, saw his machine caught in a sudden gust of wind, spin around like a top to a right angle of the line of his original course, and then plunged downward. Screams of terror from frightened women were heard on all sides when it was seen that the biplane would land squarely on the automobile.

Its flight was too quick for the occupants of the car to jump, and they huddled on the floor of the tonneau. The biplane struck squarely on the engine hood of the automobile and then crumpled over on the canopy top.

Mars had shut off his engine when the aeroplane started down, and in a few minutes scores of spectators were dashing the wreckage from the automobile, first taking out Mars and then the occupants of the touring car.

Mars' first public flight was made at the Memphis meet and Saturday he carried off the honors by his high flights, skill and daring. He also succeeded in equaling Curtiss' quick start record of 5.45 seconds.

Only a few flights were attempted Sunday. Curtiss and Mars prior to the accident, owing to weather conditions.

Washington, April 11.—The feeling that somebody overlooked a bet when the administration failed to send a representative to Europe to meet Col. Roosevelt became prevalent in political circles today when it became known that Pinchot had met the former president.

LATE SESSION FOR CONGRESS

Washington, April 11.—With the administration railroad bill before both houses as a privileged measure, indications today are that congress will settle down to a month or more of steady grinding debates on the bill.

The most optimistic leaders expect that the railroad bill will not pass the senate before May 1 and from present indications it will be late in June before congress can dispose of the business now pending.

PRES. TAFT CABLES ITALIAN MAYOR AND THANKS HIM FOR RECEPTION GIVEN ROOSEVELT.

Sent in Name of All America and Message Has Been Forwarded to the Colonel.

Porto Maurizio, April 11.—By staff correspondent of the U. P.—Gifford Pinchot arrived here unexpectedly at midnight and after a few hours' sleep went early this morning to the villa of Miss Carow, where he was given an enthusiastic greeting by Colonel Roosevelt. They clasped like long lost brothers and departed immediately on a walk through the mountains. Their stroll lasted two hours and if the same earnestness that marked their conversation at the start of the walk was maintained throughout, the last year in America was pretty thoroughly covered.

To the correspondent's inquiries after the pair returned to the villa there was an announcement of "nothing to give out."

Caretti, mayor of Porto Maurizio, today received a reply to a cable which the mayor sent President Taft expressing the pleasure of the people at having Col. Roosevelt as their guest. In his reply President Taft thanked the Richards on behalf of all America for the reception given "our most distinguished citizen."

MADMAN IS STILL AT LARGE

Shot and Killed Editor and Mission Worker Near Church Door

COMPANION IS WOUNDED

Slayer Escaped From Hospital Where He Was to Undergo Operation.

Pittsburg, April 11.—(2 p. m.)—No trace has been found up until 3 o'clock of Jan Rowicz, the alleged mad man who shot and killed Fred Skala, a mission worker, and seriously wounded his companion, John Gay, as they came out of church yesterday. Police say the assassin recently escaped from St. John's hospital just as he was to have been operated upon for appendicitis.

Pittsburg, April 11.—A sermon on martyrdom, in which Frank Skala, an editor and prominent mission worker, had declared himself willing to lay down his life for the Christian cause, was followed yesterday by his assassination in a highly sensational manner and the shooting down of a fellow church leader, John Gay.

Arm in arm, the two missionaries were leaving the little Congregational church of Woods Run, a suburb, at the head of more than 100 foreigners. A raggedly dressed and collarless man poked his way through the crowd as it reached the corner of Eckert street and McClure avenue, and when he was but a step behind the leaders, he pressed a revolver to Skala's head and fired twice, Skala falling dead. Gay, who threw up his right hand as if to ward off the weapon, was struck first in the thumb, and then a second bullet was buried in his head. He fell unconscious across the body of his colleague.

For a moment—for several moments—the assassin stood over his prey in a crazed contemplation of the deed, flourishing his revolver, while the panic-stricken crowd fled to shelter behind posts and doorways.

The madman was Jan Radowitch, a character known to most of the mission for his shiftless habits, slovenly dress and radical opinions. A moment before he had meekly read from juvenile leaflets in the Sunday school led by Skala; previously he had sat in a back pew of the church during the regular sermon, and at the commencement of the service Skala had shaken his hand in greeting. In all this Radowitch gave no warning of his murderous intent.

There were no police in sight when the murder was done, the church people were too frightened to grab the assassin, and after flourishing his weapon and stamping his foot on the bodies, he made off down the avenue to the Port Wayne railroad tracks and disappeared. A large armed posse of police, detectives and church people was soon in pursuit, but up to a late hour last night they

CASES WILL BE REHEARD

Washington, April 11.—Because there are only seven members of the supreme court now sitting, Chief Justice Fuller announced today that the appeal of the Standard Oil company in the disjunction suit brought by the United States and Tobacco Trust case will both be restored to the docket and be reheard.

WESTON PASSING THROUGH OHIO

Fremont, O., April 11.—Edward Payson Weston reached here at 10:30 today in good condition after a 37-mile walk from Toledo. He was given a big reception and started for Norwalk at 11:30.

Party leaders expressed the wish that Senator Root had accepted the invitation from T. R. and gone to Europe to pour into his other ear something to offset Pinchot's story.

TONG WAR BREAKS OUT ONCE MORE

Four Chinamen Meet Death at Hands of Rival Society

FORTY-TWO IN THE TOILS

Trouble Believed to Have Started Over Young Chinese Girl's Murder.

Philadelphia, April 11.—After a long period of peace among Chinese factional societies a tong war broke out in this city last night, and, as a result, two Chinamen are dead and another badly injured that he is expected to live but a few hours.

The shootings were at two different localities, but within a couple of minutes of each other. The first was in the grocery of On San Wo Co., No. 333 Cherry street, where Chu Long, the proprietor, was killed, and Jung Sing, who lives at No. 1004 Race street, was shot twice in the stomach. The latter is now in the Hahnemann hospital.

The echoes of the three shots were there had hardly died away before another storm of bullets rained into the Chinese restaurant of Mie Hong Low, on Race street, near Ninth, when the Hip Sing Tong were holding a banquet. At this place an unknown man was shot as the invaders entered the kitchen. Immediately the shooters disappeared, and together with the two men who committed the murder in Cherry street, sought refuge in the many hundred-room houses of Chinatown.

The fact that the Hip Sing Tong were holding a banquet without the knowledge of the police, which is usual in that protection may be given against attacks by rival societies, probably accounts for the shooters being able to do their work and get away.

All of the victims were members of the Hip Sing Tong. So far as the police were able to learn at a late hour the attacks were by agents of a new society called the Four Brothers, which, while not actually allied with the On Leong Tong, who are the most bitter enemies of the Hip Sing, are strongly opposed to the reforms for which the Hip Sing stand.

As soon as the shooting became known the police roped off Race street between Ninth and Tenth streets, and started in to round up all suspects. Chinamen not known in the locality, forty-two of these were caught in the dragnet, but it is not yet known whether the murderer of Nong is among the number.

Sing was able to tell the police that the murderer and his friend hurried from the store after the shooting in the direction of Race street.

Chinatown is completely surrounded by policemen and if the criminals have not already got beyond the police lines they stand little chance of escaping.

FEUD

Over Murder of Chinese Girl Causes Two Tong Murders.

New York, April 11.—Two Chinamen dead and a third seriously wounded marked the renewal Sunday afternoon of the Tong feud in Chinatown. Chung Fook was shot three times in the chest while standing on a street corner and died before he could be carried to a hospital. Chen Hen was arrested. Ing Mon Mong, a laundryman, was found dead in a store in Doyers street, with a bullet hole in his right side. Nobody has been arrested in this case.

Chunoy Lien, a wealthy and benevolent merchant who was formerly Chinese agent in New York for the Northern Pacific Railroad, has shot three times in both thighs by an assassin who escaped. He will recover. No arrests have been made in this affair.

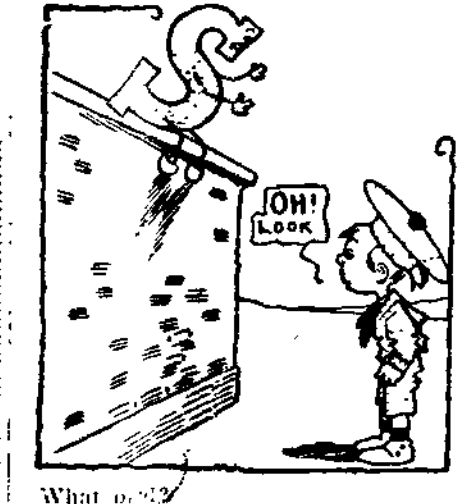

Chun has never saw his assailant before and that he had not an enemy in the world.

Since Bow Him, a Chinese girl, was murdered last fall in her room by assassins, who never have been found, although arrests were made and a trial held, there has been a slumbering tong war between the Ong Leong Tong and the Four Brothers, the latter a society of ancient origin, but new in police annals. Chung Yook, who is dead, was a member of the Ong Leong Tong. (Chun Yook was a member of the Four Brothers, but had many friends among the Ong Leong Tong. Nothing is known of the affiliations of Ing Mon, the laundryman.)

FIRE AT MARIETTA RESULTS IN BIG LOSS

Marietta, O., April 11.—The destruction of the warehouse occupied by the American Iron and Supply company, the Oil Well Supply company and the Soyer Hardware company, was destroyed by fire this morning with a loss of $30,000. A boy went into the cable and oil room and struck a match and almost instantly the entire building was a mass of flames. Two of the employees narrowly escaped being caught in the building.

 Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a brick dust sediment, or settling, stringy or milky appearance often indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back are also symptoms that tell you the kidneys and bladder are out of order and need attention.

TEAMS HAD BETTER HUSTLE AS OPENING DAY IS DRAWING NEAR

Fans over the Ohio State league are becoming worried as to whether there is really going to be a league this season. There seems to be the lack of enthusiasm of former years and no one has heard anything of a schedule and the opening of the season is only a little over three weeks away.

Marion seems to be the only club on the circuit that has been showing the proper spirit. The owners, assisted by the fans, have come to the front and the result is that they have a team of youngsters, with a few of last season's players, ready to report.

Clinton has signed up a bunch of players and is said to be ready for the opening of the season. The game may be good there if the league goes through as this will be their first season. While it is more or less than an experiment and the population is around the fifteen thousand mark, yet that is larger than Lancaster.

Portsmouth claims that fourteen players have been signed for that city and that Mike Roach will be there this week to take charge of affairs. Ever since St. Straus withdrew his backing in the Ohio River city things have been wobbly and conflicting reports have been sent out by correspondents regarding the status of the team.

Lancaster is sitting up now men right along and according to the dope from that city forty-two will report and the end is not yet, as they are not expected to hit Fairchild's capital until the 20th inst. Al McClintock is the manager and he is expected to report some time this week.

Efforts have been made to place a club in Lima but so far there has been nothing doing. Bob Quinn was down

Lancaster isn't going beating when it comes to players, for 42 men have signed contracts sent out by Manager McClintock. Since he has that small army to pick from McClintock is going to leave them report in squads, then he can weed out the good from the bad and match the good first individuals against the late comers.

Live Warrren, who is trying out for the utility job with the Columbus Senators was in Newark Sunday afternoon visiting his wife and shaking hands with his friends. Warrren is putting up a good fight for the job he wants and his Newark friends want to see him succeed.

Manager Roach will reach Portsmouth this week and will start his work. So far his squad only numbers 14 men, but leave it to Mike, he will just about give the River City the best game of ball terrors they have had since they have been playing ball there. The Portsmouth Amusement Co. has been incorporated at $5,000, and William Gableman, at one time connected with the Portsmouth Times, is the new president.

Manager Lewis is trying to secure Ralph Behringer's return to the Marion club from the Wausau, Wis., club where he was sent by Secretary Farrell of the National Commission. The Digger infield would look a lot better with Behringer cavoring therein.

C. M. A. WON.

In a hotly contested game yesterday the C. M. A. team defeated the crack Hermann organization by a score of 10 to 7.

Hermann's new recruit pitcher was hammered unmercifully in the fourth inning. Brown started the clouting with a three bagger to center and after every member of the team got a good crack at the ball the score stood 7 to 3 in favor of the C. M. A. In the fifth Casdollar was sacrificed and replaced by Winters, the man with the swift ones, but the C. M. A. boys secured three runs off Jake in the sixth. The feature of the game was the batting of Left and the putting of Lefty Atwood. The score:

THE BALL PLAYERS HAVE BROKEN INTO THE LIMELIGHT AGAIN, AND EVERY ONE IS HAPPY

The season when aunts and grandmothers die with a regularity that is little short of marvelous is at hand—the baseball season. Throughout broad America office boys are dutifully practicing a choking, sobbing voice, as they are wont to murmur, "Me aunt just died, and the funeral's at 3 o'clock." Stern business men have dug up the dust covered sign "Have Gone to the Game." A working man, with a tincture of peanut shells and are ready to join in the mighty chorus, "Play ball!"

a-weary discussing the high cost of living and why the tariff is and is not responsible have cleared their throats with a tincture of peanut shells and are ready to join in the mighty chorus, "Play ball!"

In Woman's Realm

Last week the many friends of Mrs. David Griffiths of East Main street, planned a very delightful surprise for her in the way of a postal shower. She received a large number of beautiful and artistic cards which will afford her much pleasure for many days to come and for which she wishes to thank the senders.

Mrs. Guy Hoffman of Union street pleasantly entertained the Wednesday evening club, the fortunate contestants in the game being Mr. and Mrs. Milton Downey, Mrs. George Jones and Mr. Dan Bowman. The serving of a delicious course luncheon brought the evening to a close all too soon. Mrs. E. J. Kelly was a guest of the club.

The Afternoon Progressive club had as its hostess on Thursday Mrs. Guy Hoffman of Union street and at the close of an exciting contest prizes were awarded to Mrs. J. E. Burch and Mrs. J. P. Lamb. A luncheon was served at five o'clock.

The druggists of the city will this evening, after the closing of the stores, enjoy their annual banquet in the dining rooms of the Warden Hotel and an elaborate spread has been prepared, plates having been laid for thirty-two. Speech making will follow the serving of the menu.

The last meeting of the Tuesday Bridge club has been postponed from the club day to Wednesday when it will be entertained by Mrs. Wilson Heiser at the Warden hotel.

The last dance of the season to be given by the local order of Elks will be held on Wednesday evening in Assembly hall.

Miss Mamie Smucker of Hudson avenue has issued invitations for a progressive bridge party at which she will be hostess on Tuesday afternoon, complimenting Mrs. Fred Weston of Washington state.

The Monday sewing club is meeting this afternoon at the home of Miss Jane Irwin in Hudson avenue and the needles will be kept busy until 5 o'clock when a dainty repast will be served to the club members and the following guests: Mrs. C. W. Miller, Miss Louise Hinder, Miss Mamie Smucker, Miss Hazel Althoff, Mrs. Fred Weston of the state of Washington, and Miss Clarice Hattenbauer of Cincinnati.

Miss Hazel Colville of Woods avenue on Saturday celebrated the twentieth anniversary of her birth by inviting in a few of her little friends. The afternoon passed pleasantly in playing various games, including a peanut hunt, playing the tail on the donkey and several guessing contests, for which prizes were awarded. At six o'clock the young people were seated by means of dainty place cards in the dining room at one large table having as its centerpiece a cake containing eleven burning candles. Here an appetizing repast was served to the following young folks: Laura Beggs, Mildred Simpson, Carol Wyeth, Lillian, Mildred Close, Esther Reese, Mary Benson, Crest Root, Helen North, Mary Kibler, Elizabeth Kibler, Violet Wilder, Vera Allison, Glenn Grisham, Lucile Brown and Hazel Colville.

WALTERS-HILL.
Mr. Alva Walters, a well known mechanic of this city, and Miss Rose Hill, daughter of Mrs. Lydia Hill, of Hudson avenue, were united in marriage at 1 o'clock Sunday afternoon by Rev. L. C. Sparks, at his residence in C. Fifth street. They were unattended.

Mr. and Mrs. Walters are now at home to their friends at the home of the bride's mother, in Hudson avenue.

DARKES-WEBB.
The home of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Atkinson in Riley street was the scene of a very pretty wedding Saturday evening when the Rev. Wiesbeck, of St. John's Evangelical church, united Mr. William Darkes and Miss Nella Webb in the holy bonds of matrimony. The ring ceremony was used, which was very beautiful. Mr. Darkes is a well known resident of Newark and Miss Webb is a daughter of W. S. Webb of Chichester and was formerly a teacher in the Franklin, Pa. school. After a very pleasant informal evening Mr. and Mrs. Darkes left for 253 Wilson street where they will be at home to their friends after April the twentieth.

When ready to fill the tomatoes add a tablespoonful of chopped parsley for every two potatoes and one lettuce leaf shredded fine. To the quantity necessary for each tomato add three whole mushrooms, and mix all again with French dressing. Stuff the tomatoes, and serve each tomato on a curly lettuce leaf, surrounded by mayonnaise dressing. Garnish with slices of eggs.

LOOK FOR BIG CROWD.

Senator Gore, the blind senator from Oklahoma, who is considered one of the most eloquent orators in the country, will be the principal speaker at the banquet to be given by the Jefferson Club in the new Memorial building in Columbus next Saturday night. Judge Brister still has a number of tickets left for the banquet, although they are going like hot cakes. The indications are that a large crowd will go over to Columbus Saturday night.

Pay Back 500 Per Cent.
The directors of the Great Expectation Oil company have declared a 100 per cent dividend to their stockholders payable April 9. This makes the $100 per cent paid by this company and a total of 500 per cent within 60 days. The production of this company is holding up admirably and dividends will continue to be paid.

The Great Expectation well at present flowing a little over 115 barrels a day. Although this is somewhat less than when the well was first shot three months ago, it has been a most wonderful well and was the cause of several new companies operating near the site. The well has produced since it was first shot over 15,000 barrels of oil of the highest quality.

The yards of many London schools are kept open after hours as playgrounds.

You can seldom say of the Government contractor that he builded better than he knew.

NEW FACTORY HAS LOCATED IN NEWARK

Articles of incorporation of The Burke Golf Shaft Company were filed with the secretary of state Saturday. This concern will locate at Newark and will engage in the manufacture of golf shafts and club stocks. It was organized by William Burke of Dayton, O., who will be manager of the concern as well as a heavy stockholder in it. Some Newark capital is interested in the company.

A location in the north end of the city along the B. & O. railroad tracks has been secured for the factory and work has been begun on the building.

It is not expected that the company will employ many men at the outset, but it will be one more manufacturing concern to add to the many that Newark now has and will do its part in helping along the prosperity of Newark.

Mr. Wm. Burke, the prime mover in this concern, has been in the Hickory lumber business for the past 35 years. Some 15 years he managed the golf club department of the Crawford, McClellan and Cady company of Dayton, Ohio, and he managed the International Golf Shaft company of Dayton, from which position he has recently retired for the purpose of organizing the new company to do business in Newark.

Even a pencil has to be pretty sharp to make its mark.

We don't need straw to see which way the wind blows in March.

ARE MICROBES IN YOUR SCALP

It Has Been Proved That Microbes Cause Baldness.

Prof. Uta of Hamburg, Germany, and Dr. S. Bourand, the leading French dermatologist, discovered that a microbe causes baldness. Their theory has time and again been amply verified through research experiments carried on under the observation of eminent scientists. This microbe lodges in the scalp, which is the seat of the hair, and when permitted to flourish it destroys the hair follicles, and in time the pores entirely close, and the scalp gradually takes on a shiny appearance. When this happens there is no hope of the growth of hair being revived.

Dandruff is a contagious disease, which is largely due to a destructive microbe, which when left to pursue its course causes itching scalp, falling hair and baldness. Dandruff is caused by the microbe affecting the glands which produce the sebaceous matter, which latter then unnaturally dries up and scales off.

We have a remedy which will honestly believe, remove dandruff, exterminate the microbe, promote good circulation in the scalp and revitalize the hair roots and overcome baldness, so long as there is any life left in the hair roots.

We back up this statement with our own personal guarantee that this remedy called Rexall "R" Hair Tonic will be supplied free of all cost to the user if it fails to do as we state.

It will frequently restore gray and faded hair to its original color, providing less of color has been caused by disease; yet it is in no sense a dye. Rexall "R" Hair Tonic accomplishes these results by making every hair root, follicle and pigment gland strong and active, and by stimulating a natural flow of coloring pigment throughout the hair cells.

Rexall "R" Hair Tonic is entirely free from grease or sediment, is exceedingly pleasant to use and will not gum the hair or permanently soil the clothing or pillows.

We exact no obligations or promises—we simply ask you to give it a thorough trial and if not satisfied, tell us and we will refund the money you paid us for it. Two sizes, prices 50 cents and $1.00. Remember you can obtain it in Newark only at our store—The Rexall Store, Hall's Drug Store, 10 North Side Square.

MADMAN STILL AT LARGE

had found no trace of him. After the madman's disappearance the mission crowd reassembled about their fallen leaders and passionately mourned their loss. Skala's body was removed to an undertaker's rooms and Gay was taken to St. John's hospital. His wound is a dangerous one, but it is believed he will recover.

Skala was prominent locally as a mission worker and associate editor of the Bohemian Christian Journal, which he and Rev. James Losa published at Corapolis. He was a Presbyterian, but filled the pulpit at the Congregational mission house as a substitute Sunday, as he had often done before.

Rev. Mr. Losa was summoned to the undertaking rooms soon after the tragedy, and in violent emotion he delivered a discourse over the body while a hundred followers wept. Dr. William A. McEwan, head of the Presbyterian mission here, said Mr. Skala was one of the most successful leaders in the field. He came here from Moravia, Austria, seven years ago, and after a thorough education at the College in Missouri, he settled in Corapolis as a missionary. He was 25 years old. He married one of his converts and besides her, he leaves a child.

Gay is a colporteur for the Bible Institute of Allegheny county and is well known for his extensive work among foreigners.

None of the church workers believe there was any method in Radowitch's madness. He was a man who had lived at the Salvation Army barracks and a charitable parasite elsewhere, but was always at variance with the teachings of his Christian leaders. It is doubtful if he had ever seen Skala before. He is said to have been detained once at a hospital for examination into his mental condition, but was released after a brief time. He wore ragged coats, with odd patches sewn with coarse white thread.

It is believed by some of the congregation, that the sermon Skala preached, with the emphatic declaration that "any moment God would want my life I am ready to lay my life down," had stirred the foreigner to test his Christian fidelity. Skala had taken for his text, "I am the bread of life," and had preached upon the old-time martyrs.

Switchmen Accept Advance.
After a formal conference Saturday between switchmen and officials of the Baltimore and Ohio Southern western railroad, it was announced that switchmen in the employ of that road had been granted an advance of 5 cents an hour. The men have accepted the advance.

An Agreement To Be Reached.
It is understood that an agreement is to be reached soon between the engineers on the Big Four and the company officials regarding the matter of salary. A conference was held with General Manager Van Winkle at Cincinnati, and it is believed that the matter will be amicably adjusted.

Banknotes, it is said, were first issued in China 2697 B. C.

Some men make friends and others expect their friends to make them.

AMUSEMENTS

Rose Stahl Should Pack Auditorium

Perhaps never again will Newark theater patrons have the opportunity of seeing "Rose Stahl" in their home theater, and yet the next time she will be seen at the Auditorium theater tomorrow night and she should pack the house. She is on tour from Cincinnati to New York, where two weeks from tonight she enters upon a long engagement in this same place that has held the attention of New York several previous times. Those who know the reputation of Miss Stahl will attend and for those who do not know let it be said that they should take the chance and they will never regret it, for she is one of the largest successes in comedy of the past several seasons.

he is more than thirty years old and a thorough comedian of the world—is in the form of children display comedy intelligence as comedians. Rosen has been identified with Buster Brown characterization, and though he is the smallest of the pigmy actors, Napoleon of the swaddling clothes is just right for him. A pair of skinny legs that project too far out of Snookum's lingerie betray that fact; the manner in which he gurgles "Da-da-da-da" for instance, could not be bettered by any of the genuine infants of our best families.

ROSE STAHL IN "THE CHORUS LADY."

"The Chorus Lady" is a comedy in four acts depicting certain momentous incidents in the life of Patricia O'Brien of the chorus, who is in love with Dan Mallory, the owner of a racing stable at which her father, Patrick O'Brien, is employed as trainer. Mallory having experienced a series of reverses on the track, has been compelled to take as a partner Dick Crawford, a well-known man-about-town, who is attracted by the beauty of Patricia's younger sister, Nora. Patricia arriving home unexpectedly through the closing of her company, finds that Crawford is trying to evilly

"THE NEWLYWEDS AND THEIR BABY"

If you are a Newlywed and the proud parent of a Snookums, you will derive much glee from the theatrical proceedings to occur on the stage at the Minstrel Misses With "The Newlyweds and Their Baby" at the Auditorium Theatre Tonight.

Auditorium theatre for one performance, tonight. But if you are an indurated bachelor with a contempt for domestic sentimentality and a vicious taste for the sophisticated luxury of cafe life, you may regard the affair as another symptom of mental weakness on the part of a race perishing in the foolish pastime of perpetuating itself.

The entertainment in question is an adaptation of the comic pictures by George McManus, which generally portrays the foibles of baby worship and conjugal infatuation in the comic sections to the medium of the familiar American song-show. "The Newlyweds and Their Baby" is called with fidelity to its inspiration; it visualizes Ferdinand and Levee and Napoleon with accuracy; and its lyrics, comic and melodramatic embellishments are handled with commendable technique—for this sort of thing as easily as the higher forms of the art. It can be claimed to be a high sounding word. So far as liberalization of cartoons is concerned, "The Newlyweds and Their Baby" is better work than heretofore.

Napoleon, the coffee baby, is played by one James L. Foy, a boy whose name is "Baby" N. Rosen.

roar of laughter throughout their time upon the stage. Mr. Frank L. Whittier, the star, is supported by Annie Ince, Chas. LeRoy and others. Of course Edith Stanley's beauty, her wonderful voice and excellent taste in dress have much to do with the work she is to present. Her pianoforte is one of the hits of the circuit. The "Copeland Trio," which opened yesterday, is one big scream. They sing, dance and introduce the famous "Gibson" harp-guitar and mandolin, playing beautiful solos, etc. A. D. Reynard, a bicycle rider of international reputation, will introduce tricks on that vehicle that are simply wonderful. As usual the Orpheumscope will present late subjects in the moving picture line.

FREE STEREOPTICON LECTURE. Mr. D. H. Francis, deputy supreme chief of the Supreme Tribe of Ben Hur, will deliver a lecture on the book "Ben Hur" in the Y. M. C. A. Auditorium tomorrow night at 7:30. He will also sing "The Holy City." Both lecture and song will be illustrated with 100 beautiful slides. Mr. Francis comes highly commended as an orator of ability and a fine singer. An evening of real entertainment and instruction awaits all who will hear him tomorrow night. The lecture is for adults, given free under the auspices of the local court.

PRESIDENT IS SOME TRAVELER

Washington, April 11.—With an average of 75 miles traveled daily since he became president and practically a speech a day since that date, President Taft has established a record that makes the alleged strenuousness of Roosevelt while in the White House appear to have been a most ordinary performance.

Taft has traveled 28,101 miles since his inauguration, made 390 speeches, made 21 excursions from Washington, visiting 39 states, two territories and Mexico. He has another big program of travel laid out for the coming summer.

Mr. F. C. He began railway work in 1874 as a telegraph operator and station agent on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul, filling various positions with that company and the Minneapolis, St. Paul and Northern Pacific, until February, 1890, when he was made superintendent of the S. P. zation of the Baltimore and Ohio lines west of Chicago Junction, O., was made, with the creation of the Northwest system, which is also under the jurisdiction of Mr. Bacheider as general superintendent.

ROUGH TREATMENT FOR LORRAINE

Bridgeport, Conn., April 11.—Kerosene highballs and soap stew fed to a girl freshman as a part of her initiation into a High school sorority are the alleged causes of the present sojourn in a sanitarium of Lorraine Clark, 14 years old. According to her story she was initiated February 8, being compelled to drink the coal oil concoction and to eat a boiled mixture of soap and macaroni after which she was tossed in a blanket. She began to feel ill soon afterward, but did not complain until recently, after she had grown much worse. Her father, W. C. Clark, a member of the legislature, had her taken to the sanitarium for treatment. The board of education will investigate.

DELIVERED FINE LECTURE SUNDAY AT TAYLOR HALL

Physical education as part of the training of a good citizen was the theme at the Y. M. C. A. yesterday. Prof. W. E. Day of Dayton was the speaker. Lantern slides showing gymnastic classes in both the old and new buildings at Dayton were shown and individual members of classes of fifteen or more years ago pointed out who had made good in business or professional life largely because of the good health that resulted from the early training. Prof. Day is a special exponent of the idea that the chief idea of physical education is to bring good health, self control and efficiency in the line of one's calling. The newer developments in the Y. M. C. A. have been all in this direction. Competitive games and sports are used in a new way, the plan being to have as many boys or men as possible enjoying the fun of games among themselves rather than the high pressure idea of professional or college sports that sacrifices all men of ordinary playing ability to the training of a team of experts who directly or indirectly get paid for their work.

Corrective work that helps business men out of stomach or nervous troubles or that will enable a boy having a tendency toward weak lungs to avoid disease of that sort is also one of the features. Physical education as a means of training in good morals also comes in "clean sport" and honesty in play and self control under temptation all have proved items in the building of the good citizen and the Y. M. C. A. is the pioneer in emphasizing this and making it attractive to all kinds of boys and men.

DISPOSES OF GROCERY AT FIVE POINTS

The well known Five Points grocery at the corner of Granville and Locust streets, has changed hands, James A. Wilson, the former owner, selling out to Walter Wells, who took possession Monday. Mr. Wells is a resident of Hudson avenue, and for more than seven years he has been a partner with the Conrad grocery. Mr. Wells has many friends in Newark, who have made both in a social and business way, with him since he came to the new venture.

Mr. Wilson has purchased a tract of land of 32 1/2 acres on the east of Newark, N. J., and is also starting work preparing to plant an orchard this fall, with Mrs. Wilson and their two children will own it. Mr. Wilson will make a specialty of raising grape fruit, but with it he will raise all other citrus fruits. Together with farming, Mr. Wilson has secured a lease on the land on the Ohio tract, which he will improve and manage. Mr. Arthur Powell, also of Newark, has secured a tract of land adjoining that of Mr. Wilson, and together they will plant this fall 1400 trees.

ADDRESS OF FATHER KRESS SUNDAY EVE.

There was a very large attendance at Blessed Sacrament church last night when Father W. S. Kress spoke on agnosticism and faith in a personal God.

He quoted Olive Schreiner as saying: "The tears of the mourners, and the mud of the grave cement the power of the priests." Beneath this caption criticism of a brilliant agnostic writer, he admitted his substratum of truth. The grave is a powerful preacher, but it needs no priest to raise the problem of whence do we come, why are we here, whither shall we go. We are sure of dying; what then? Do we owe responsibility to any being outside of ourselves?

The existence of any and all visible things praises the existence of a Creator. Where there is something there must have been someone before.

Some philosophers say the world has existed from all eternity. The world is older today than it was yesterday. Where there is succession there was a beginning. Go back far enough and you will get to year one. Where was the world the year before that? How did it progress out of nothing into something?

Where there is movement there must be a motive force. Science shows matter to be inert; a material body in repose cannot put itself in motion. Outside of the world there there must be an impelling and directive force.

One or the other may account for the orderly movements of the earth and of the heavenly bodies by the laws of nature. But who has planned these laws and put them into execution? Where there is law there must be a lawgiver.

Someone says we cannot know God as a personal being, because we have not seen Him. We need not be introduced to the builder of a house to know that he is a person and endowed with skill and intelligence.

If God is not a person He is lower than man, lower than the brute animal. However Supreme intelligence is manifested in the operations of nature. Some speak of chance as the author of the perfections we see about us. As well tell us of a blind painter or dumb singer.

After the lecture Rev. C. A. Martin answered a number of written questions. He will lecture tonight on the evolution theory of Darwin in relation to the immortal soul.

TEDDY JR.

Now in Business Office of Big Factory Has Followed Every Branch of Manufacture.

Thompsonville, Conn., April 11.—The "Teddy Jr." overalls have been relegated to the rag-bag. Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., now a "practical carpet man" with an insight into the manner in which a big factory turns out floor coverings, is today watching the manner in which the business office operates. In another month he will leave the factory here on a vacation and will remain out of harness until after his wedding in New York, the latter part of June. Then he will go to San Francisco to become district manager there of the Hartford Carpet company, taking with him his bride, Miss Eleanor Alexander, of New York. Young Roosevelt started in the wool room of the Hartford carpet company on Oct. 1, 1908, and since that time has followed carpers through every branch of manufacture.

One of the latest things in the world to buy, in the opinion of a man who recently tried it, is a water key. The practical appearance of the key wound water has made the key a rarity.

WORTH MOUNTAINS OF GOLD

During Change of Life, says Mrs. Chas. Barclay

Graniteville, Vt. — "I was passing through the Change of Life and suffered from nervousness and other annoying symptoms, and I can truly say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has proved worth mountains of gold to me, as it restored my health and strength. I never forget to tell my friends what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me during this trying period. Complete restoration to health means so much to me that for the sake of other suffering women I am willing to make my trouble public so you may publish this letter." — Mrs. CHAS. BARCLAY, R.F.D., Graniteville, Vt.

No other medicine for woman's ills has received such wide-spread and unqualified endorsement. No other medicine we know of has such a record of cures of female ills as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

For more than 20 years it has been curing female complaints such as inflammation, ulceration, local weakness, blood tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, headache, indigestion and nervous prostration, and it is unequalled for carrying women safely through the period of change of life. It costs but little to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and, as Mrs. Barclay says, it is "worth mountains of gold" to suffering women.

PEOPLE'S

RUSSELL.
Pastor Brooklyn
Tabernacle.

PULPIT... MOUNTAINS SWEPT INTO THE SEA

"We Will Not Fear Though the Mountains Be Carried Into the Midst of the Sea" (Psalm xlii, 2).

April 10.—Pastor Russell, accompanied by Dr. Jones, who will serve him as stenographer, and by a representative of this Journal, sailed from New York April 5th for Jerusalem—via Paris, Bern, Naples, Alexandria, Cairo and the Pyramids, Jaffa, to Jerusalem and vicinity. His return will be via Rome, Vienna, Warsaw, Berlin, Elberfeld and London. Meetings have been arranged for enroute. His longest stay will be in Great Britain, where about twenty appointments in the principal cities await him. He will be speaking practically every day. His Sunday discourses will be specially reported in these columns. Special interest will center in the discourses at Jerusalem and Home. The many readers of his sermons will follow the Pastor in his journey with great interest. He is scheduled to be back in Brooklyn June 5th, when his topic will be "Jerusalem." In anticipation of a large audience on that occasion Brooklyn's largest Auditorium, the Academy of Music, has been secured. His sermons now reach six million families weekly, and assuredly many of these wish him God-speed.

On the Atlantic April Tenth.

I have chosen for my text a sea topic, a symbolical prophecy which, I believe, is rapidly nearing fulfillment. All Bible students recognize the fact that many of the Psalms are Messianic; that is to say, they apply to the time of the inauguration of Messiah's Millennial Kingdom. Some of them detail the peace and joy and blessings which will then prevail amongst men, when the great leveling processes of that time will raise all the worthy poor and degraded and will humble all the proud, establishing Society under such new conditions that the new order of things is symbolically styled in the Scriptures "a new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness" (II Peter iii, 13). Others of the Psalms describe in highly figurative terms the work of the Millennial Age. For instance, we read:

"Gird thy sword upon thy thigh, O most Mighty, with thy glory and thy majesty. And in thy majesty ride prosperously, because of truth and meekness and righteousness; and thy right hand shall teach thee terrible things. Thine arrows are sharp in the heart of the King's enemies; whereby the people fall under thee" (Isaiah xiv, 3-5). Here the great Redeemer is pictured as the glorious conquering King of the Millennial Age, and his victory over every opposing influence is emphasized—"Unto him every knee shall bow and every tongue confess" (Isaiah xiv, 23). His right hand that will teach terrible things is the symbol of the Divine power which will be exercised at the inauguration of the Kingdom. The sharp arrows which will pierce the enemies to the heart and cause them symbolically to fall before him slain represent his messages of Truth and Grace which then will conquer as they do not now, except in the hearts of the few. A sample of those now slain after this manner by the Word of Truth is furnished us in the account of St. Peter's sermon on the Day of Pentecost. He preached the Truth plainly, thrusting in the "sword of the Spirit" up to the hilt. He told his hearers how they and their rulers had crucified the Prince of Life. They were "cut to the heart," and it was the greatest blessing that could have possibly come to them (Acts ii, 23). Similarly during the Millennium, the "arrows" of Truth will smite down all opposition; and mankind, cut to the heart with proper appreciation of their own sinfulness and God's mercy, will fall before the great King, accepting mercy upon his gracious terms—full surrender.

The Day of Trouble Pictured.

The Psalm of which our text is a part is one of the Messianic Psalms. Prophetically and symbolically it tells about the trouble incident to the passing away of the present order of sin and selfishness and the inauguration of the new order of righteousness and love under the great Mediatorial Kingdom of Christ. Whether the events which the Scriptures predict shall come in our day or not, we hold that they will come and be in full comportment with these prophetic pictures. They were surely written for our instruction (II Timothy iii, 16). And as Bible students we do well to take heed to every item of the Divine revelation, that thus we may keep ourselves in touch with the Infinite One and in sympathy with all the features of his great and wonderful Program. Let us note the particulars of the Psalm in detail.

The Refuge of His Saints.

"God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble" (Psalm xlii, 1). How beautiful! How comforting! How strengthening! Those who have entered into covenant relationship with God through Christ, through faith and consecration, and who are abiding in his love, may feel serene in any trouble—in every trouble—not merely in the final trouble, with which sin and sorrow will be brought to an end. Not merely when Satan shall be bound will God be the refuge of his saints, but in all times and under all circumstances "the peace of God which passeth all understanding" will keep the hearts and minds of his faithful.

"Therefore will not we fear, though the earth be removed, and though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea." Fear is the great torment of the majority of our race. It is the lash which the Adversary frequently uses to drive away from God those who need his sympathy and love and succor. To such the Lord speaks tenderly saying, "Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest." And again, God declares his name to be Love and says, "Their fear toward me is taught by the precepts of men"—not by his Word (Isaiah xlii, 13). He would have us trust him as a great, loving, generous Father, saying, "Like as a father pitieth his children, so the Lord compasseth those who reverence him" (Psalm ciii, 13). As love, more love, perfect love, comes into our hearts it more and more casts out the fear which the Adversary would inculcate and which has burned into men's minds and consciences the "doctrines of devils," to which the Apostle refers (I Timothy iv, 1).

"Fear not their fear, neither be afraid," says the Lord to those who are his people. "Let the peace of God which passeth all understanding rule in your hearts." Be faithful! Be trustful! Accept the assurance that "All things shall work together for good to those who love God—to the called ones according to his purpose" (Romans viii, 28). This class will not fear when the earth shall be removed and when the mountains shall be carried into the midst of the sea. They might indeed be astonished and in trepidation if these were literal mountains; but they are symbolical. The people of the Lord, under his instruction, will not be in darkness that that day shall overtake them as a thief, although it will come as a thief and as a snare upon the whole world (Luke xxi, 35). In the symbolism of the Bible the term earth is used to represent the social structure, as the mountains which constitute the backbone of the earth symbolize the kingdoms of the world supported by the social order. As the earth represents the fixity of the social order, the sea represents the restless, turbulent, dissatisfied classes which lash against the earth and continually seek to swallow it up. The removal of the earth symbolizes the disturbance of the social order. The swallowing up of the mountains in the seas represents the overwhelming of some of the great kingdoms of the earth by the uprising of the people in anarchistic rebellion against social order.

"The Powers That Be Ordained of God."

The fact that the Scriptures prophetically describe the overwhelming of the social order and the great governments of the earth must not be understood to signify that the Bible counsels revolution or anarchy. On the contrary, all of God's people throughout the Scriptures are counseled to live peaceably with all men, so far as possible. They are counseled not to use carnal weapons, not to take to the sword for the settlement of disputes, but rather to suffer injury. They are counseled that God is the great Overlord, and that although he is not now ruling directly amongst men he is fully the Master of the situation in that he could at any time overthrow all opponents. He does not acknowledge that his will is now done in the earth, but tells us that it will be done by and by and encourages us to pray and to hope and to wait for it. He tells us that Satan is now the "Prince of this world" by virtue of the fact that he deceives the minds and hearts of the majority. God would have his people understand something of his great Program, but he would keep this hidden from all others; hence the impossibility of explaining spiritual things to a carnal mind (I Corinthians ii, 14). "None of the wicked shall understand" (Daniel xii, 10).

The great Creator has contented himself with such a supervision of human affairs as leaves much responsibility in human hands. He merely interferes to raise up or to cast down on occasions when the interest of his Cause and Program may demand. For instance, the case of the Pharaoh, raised to the throne of Egypt, in Moses' day. God there raised to a throne a man of great determination, and hindered from reaching the throne other men not so favorable to the carrying out of the Divine purposes. Thus, without interfering with the free moral agency of the king, God used the wrath of man to praise him and the remainder he restrained. Similarly, God previously raised Joseph to the Governorship of Egypt for his own purposes.

The Prophet describes the tumult of that day of overwhelming trouble, when God's Kingdom will be established, saying of the sea that will swallow up the mountains, "The waters roar and he troubled, the mountains shake with the swelling thereof" (Psalm xlii, 3). It is probably true that such socialistic and anarchistic roarings have many times in the past caused the kingdoms of earth and their rulers to tremble. But some day, according to the Scriptures, the final catastrophe will occur. How near that day may be who can tell? Quite a good many earnest Bible students concur in the thought that such a climax is indicated in the prophecies for the year 1915. But be the date as it may, the fact remains. The prophecy we are examining is nearly three thousand years old, but it is as good, as sure, and as meaningful today as ever it was.

We are not of those who would harass the minds of our fellows with fear. Rather we would point them to the fact that behind this cloud of trouble there is a glorious silver lining of Millennial joy and blessing for all the families of the earth. Rather we would encourage all who have the hearing ear to zeal and faithfulness in their consecration, that they may "make their calling and their election sure" to a share in the Kingdom glories and "escape those things coming upon the earth" (Luke xxi, 36). In a word, the Gospel of Christ is not a message of damnation and fear and torture, but, as the angels declared, "Good tidings of great joy which shall be unto all people" (Luke ii, 10).

Deliverance of the Church Pictured.

In the fourth and fifth verses following our text the Church is symbolically pictured as the City or Kingdom of God, his dwelling-place. And the stream of Truth is represented as a river making the City clean and fresh and glad. The proclamation is made, "God is in the midst of her! She shall not be moved." God shall help her early in the morning—early in the Millennial morning. The Church is to be "a first-fruits unto God." Her salvation as the Bride of Christ will be accomplished early in this Millennial morning. Oh, how glad will be all those accounted worthy of a place in that elect Church—"the Church of the First-born, whose names are written in heaven!" "She shall not be moved," is in agreement with the first verse in assuring us that God's people will be preserved from fear and doubt and misunderstanding of the events of that "time of trouble" and that their faith will enable them to triumph at a time when others will be in great distress and perplexity (Luke xxi, 26).

The Gentiles Raged.

Beginning with the 6th verse the Prophet gives a brief synoptical picture of the time of trouble and its consummation and the inauguration of universal peace. "The heathen (Gentile peoples) raged!" These words describe the tumult which will prevail amongst humanity in the great time of trouble before the climax is reached. "Raging," angry voices arise from public meetings, and in the more private meetings of the lodges of Labor and Capital, and through the columns of the Press to the extent permitted. In Germany the "raging" Press for some time has been muzzled. The same is true in other nations. In Great Britain, in the United States and in France there is a fear of tumult through public Press "raging," and everything possible is done to restrain it. Whoever sees that anarchy is the most dreadful terror confronting Civilization must realize the wisdom of reasonable restraints upon his own tongue and upon the tongues of others. Nevertheless the Scriptures show us that all effort to suppress the tumult and the angry voices of men selfishly "raging" out against each other will fail.

The prophetic picture continues—"God uttered his voice; the earth melted." The unfaithfulness of humanity, the clamor of greed, both in rich and in poor, will be answered by the Almighty. "Giver of every good and perfect gift." He will "utter his voice," or, as another prophet declares, "He will speak to the people in his anger," for their correction, for their reproof. The result will be that the symbolical earth (society) will melt—the social structure of civilization will disintegrate. Another Scripture declares that that disintegration will be so great that "every man's hand will be against his neighbor."

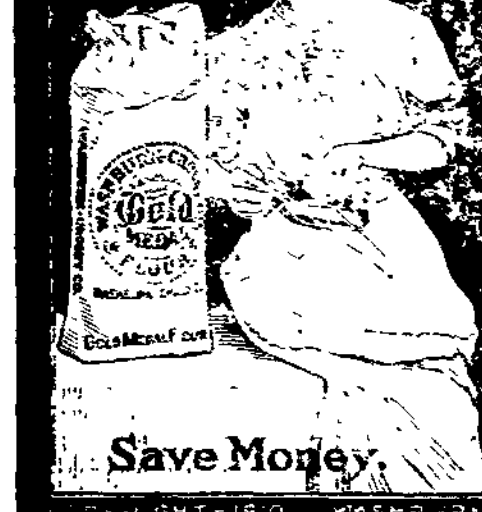

But the Prophet hastens to assure us that in the midst of all this tumult the Lord will be with his consecrated people. We read, "The Lord of hosts is with us. The God of Jacob is our refuge." This promise applies primarily to the consecrated Church of Christ—Spiritual Israel. But it also secondarily applies to fleshly Israel, the Jewish nation, which will participate in this time of trouble, but be saved out of it, as the Scriptures declare (Jeremiah xxx, 7). In this time of trouble the Lord's jewels, his saints, will be gathered to their heavenly home after which Divine favor will begin to return to Israel (Romans xi, 25-30).

The Psalm closes with a picture of the devastation which will prevail throughout the world as a result of human selfishness and blindness. Capital and Labor will rise up to a terrible cataclysm of anarchy, awful for rich and poor alike. Only God's saints will then have peace, and that because of their knowledge of the grand outcome, because of their faith in God and their willingness to accept whatever his providence should send. Mark the grand symbolic catastrophe with which the Psalm closes: "May its lessons draw us nearer to the Fountain of Grace and give us rest, peace and joy through obedience of heart to him." (He immanely maketh wars to cease unto the ends of the earth; he breaketh the bow in sunder, he burneth the chariot in fire. He sitteth and knoweth that I am God. I will be exalted among the heathen (Gentiles); I will be exalted in the earth."

VISIT OF THE HALLEY COMET.

(Second Article)

Periodical comets (travels in flattened ellipses)—Speed increases on approach to sun.—No chance of collision with earth.—Nearest possible point over twenty-four times as far away as the moon.—Visible for nine months.

(Copyright, 1906 by Frederic Campbell.)

Coming from a distance 500,000,000 miles greater than that of the most remote planet, and returning from an absence of 75 years, it now devolves upon us to trace the movements of that great comet, already discovered in our sky, and soon to be seen for months by every one who has eyes. It is true that the comet's motions are followed only in our own immediate vicinity. But the curve which it makes while within known as "aphelion." Though it comes from a much greater distance than Neptune, it makes no approach to that planet, its path bending off by quite an angle. Hence, as it draws near, we do not need to think of it as passing any planet before Jupiter. But, as it approaches the sun, it also rises to that general plane on which all the planets travel, so that, her calculations show that it crossed Jupiter's path about March 17, 1909, we sun from its most distant point, and runs no risk of collision. And low the comet is in sight. By March 11 it is due to cross the path of the earth. It dashes across the orbit of Venus about April 1, and on April 19, is at "perihelion," its nearest to the sun, swinging about that body at a distance of 86,000,000 miles therefrom, and moving at top speed. Now begins its retreat back into space. About May 10 it is again crossing Venus' path, and the 20th of May the earth's. Mars' orbit is recrossed about the seventh of July, and Jupiter's a year later. The comet will then be regarded as past history, for it will have gone from view, both telescope and camera failing to report anything further. But exact re the operations of mathematics hat, on any day and at any hour a skilled astronomer can tell just where the comet is, how fast it is going, and how near it is to the sun, the nearest planet.

We have spoken of the comet as was crossing the earth's path. It is manifest that the earth and comet might happen to meet at one of these crossing points. Hence a collision, do you say? We will discuss that in a later article. But, according to the calculation followed above, the earth was at the first crossing about October 20, 1909, and will be at the second about May 1, 1910. As the comet will be at these same points on March 11 and May 20, it is clear that the two bodies miss each other by a wide margin. About the first of May the comet is expected to reach the nearest point to the earth's path, and he two bodies will for two or three weeks be near each other. The nearest possibility of approach is about 100,000 miles, or 24 times the distance of the moon; but the comet will never be less than twice that distance from our globe. It is manifest, therefore, that there is nothing to dread.

At its last visit to our sky, the comet was visible from August 5, 1835, to May 5, 1836, a period of no less than nine months. It is for some such length of time that mankind will again look upon this stupendous spectacle. Only we must remember that, with the telescope, some are already enjoying what the rest must see for a brief time with the naked eye. For months, however, everyone will be favored. For a comet is not like a meteor, flashing and expiring, nor like an eclipse, a matter of very few minutes or hours, and visible only in certain quarters of the earth. It is rather a visitor that has come for quite a sojourn, giving every human eye, the world over, the opportunity not only to witness one of the most marvelous apparitions of the heavens, but to watch and study it in all its details.

Frederic Campbell

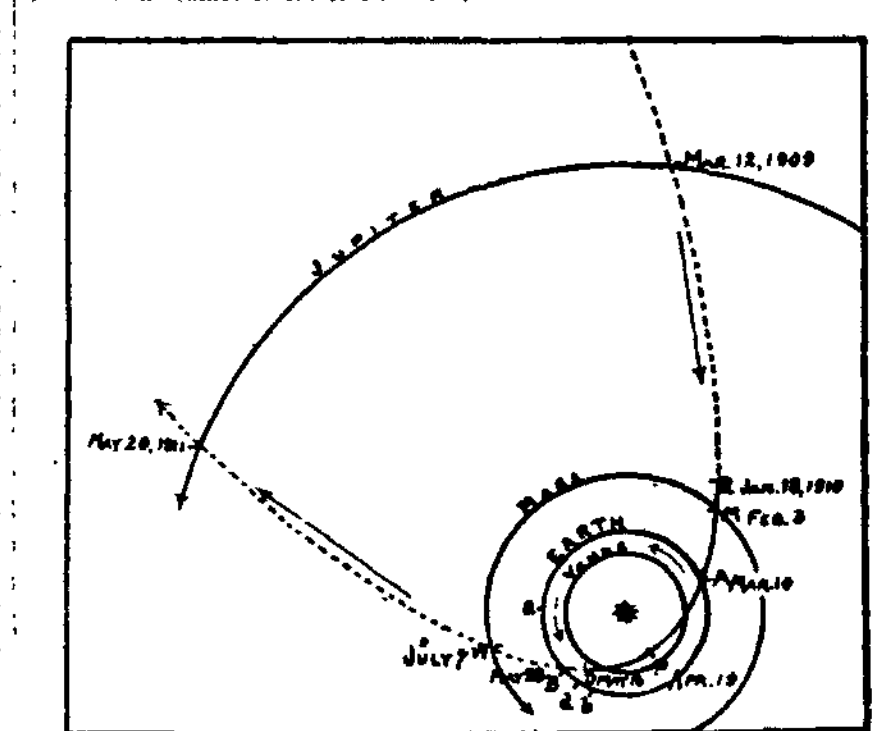

The Solar System, showing paths of planets, and of comets of long and short periods.

our view proves the curve that it must make when beyond, so that we are able to track the monster as if we saw it every day.

We need first to understand the arrangement of the members of the solar system to which both the comet and the earth belong. At the center is the sun; round about this body, in concentric paths, revolve eight planets. These, in the order of their distance from the sun, are as follows: Mercury, Venus, Earth, Mars, Jupiter, Saturn, Uranus, Neptune.

Between Mars and Jupiter, there is a swarm of little worlds, known as asteroids, not less than 600 in number. The first four planets named are small. The other four are large. The nearest the sun travel most swiftly; those farthest the most slowly. Mercury is seldom seen, because of close to the sun as usually to be lost in his brilliant rays. Venus is the brightest star in the heavens, and the nearest to the earth. Mars is the world suspected of being inhabited, because of the "canals." Jupiter is our largest planet, Saturn is the world of rings, Uranus and Neptune are not seen except with the telescope. These planets, however, with the stars, revolve about the sun, and their paths are elliptical, but so close to the sun that they may be considered as moving in a circle. The path of the comet, however, is very different, being a flattened ellipse, with the sun at one focus, and it is not in the same plane as the planets, but at an angle to it. It is not in the same plane as the planets, but at an angle to it. It is not in the same plane as the planets, but at an angle to it.

are interested to know it. The two bodies were then distant from the sun about 450,000,000 miles. There was then a wide space to cover, and an immense number of asteroids to pass; but, as an ocean liner avoids the fishing fleet off the coast of Newfoundland, so the comet steers to one side

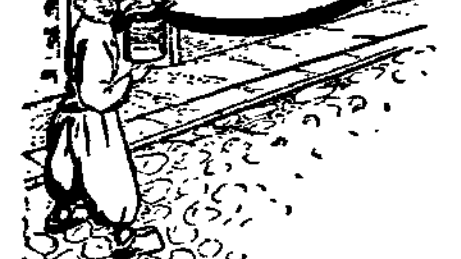

Broken line is below plane of ecliptic, or earth's level; continuous line is above the same. R, point where comet rises above plane of ecliptic. A, crosses earth's path overhead, while earth is at a. (Earth passed A, October 19, 1909.) P, perihelion, nearest point to sun, and at nearest speed. D, drops below plane of ecliptic; cannot cross sun's track; earth in tail at d. B, crosses earth's path underneath, while earth is at b. (Earth passed B, day 7.) W, crosses Mars' path again.

CASE CONTINUED.

Henry Lowendick was arrested Saturday afternoon by the police on an affidavit sworn to by Mrs. Emma Jane Gray charging him with selling half a pint of whisky to her husband, George Gray. Lowendick was ordered to appear before Mayor Atterton this morning. Mrs. Gray said she looked through a window and saw the sale made and that afterwards she recovered the liquor. ### FATHER STOPPED BLOWS

Guy Taylor and C. S. Felumie, father of a 15-year-old girl, caused some excitement on East Main street when they fought things out and the father stopped several blows from Taylor's fist. A warrant and a fine ended the incident. According to the story Taylor and the young Miss Felumie have been "going together" in spite of the protests of the parent and their battle was the result of the feeling that exists between the two men. Mr. Felumie, who resides on Rosebud avenue, just outside the city limits, was taking his daughter to school when Taylor stopped them, an argument started and a fight resulted. Later Taylor arrested before Mayor Atterton and filed an affidavit charging the father of his daughter's death, charging him with assault and battery. When the evidence was heard Felumie was discharged while Taylor was given a lecture and a fine of $10 and costs which he paid.

Constantinople, April 11.—Four Turkish cruisers and eight torpedo boats steamed for the Adriatic today to aid in suppressing the Albanian rebellion. The entire army corps is also hastening to the scene. Turkish dispatches say that several thousand rebels are tearing up the railway tracks to delay the arrival of the loyalists' reinforcements. The rebels ambushed an entire regiment of government troops near Bessina, killing most of the soldiers and blinding and maiming the prisoners taken.

News has been received here of an inter-tribal war in northeast Arabia in which 500 natives were killed in three days. This outbreak is a reflex of the Albanian trouble.

CANINES SENT TO DOG HEAVEN BY PATROLMEN

Four dogs were killed on West Main street Monday morning for all the animals showed signs of rabies. For several weeks past the police have been shooting dogs that were acting suspiciously, and many people have been bitten. Monday morning Ray Martin, employed at the United States express office was bitten and the slaughter of the canines commenced.

Dogs owned by families by the name of Robertson, Richardson and Hamilton were killed and a stray dog which had been playing with the others was also shot. The dogs were corralled and shot by Mr. Richardson and Veterinary Surgeon Williams. Almost daily the police have been called to shoot several dogs and the war will continue, so it is up to the people who own valuable animals to be careful or they will go the way of the stray cuts for no chances can be taken on a spread of rabies.

CORONER'S VERDICT IN THE KILLING OF MINNIE D. ASHBROOK

The coroner's jury of Marshalltown, Iowa, in the latest held as to the result of the accidental killing of Miss Minnie D. Ashbrook, attached the blame for the death on the railroad company. The jury returned its finding as to how Miss Ashbrook met her death, according to the facts already known, and declared that in its opinion the railroad company was negligent in not having a man on the car that was kicked over the crossing, or else not having the car attached to the engine.

The testimony of the different witnesses showed that the south gate, nearest the woman, was up at the time of the accident, but that it was in the act of being lowered. After Miss Ashbrook passed the gate going south, when there was no danger, and her hat blew off and she turned to get it, the gateman did not have time to lower the gate before she was under it again and on the tracks. Some of the witnesses believed that Miss Ashbrook could have seen the approaching car had she been looking, and some thought she did so, but not until it was on her. Another believed that the view was obstructed by a box car on the horse track, the track just south of the one where the accident occurred.

Miss Ashbrook was the oldest kindergarten teacher in Marshalltown, where she had taught continually for eighteen years. She was a competent kindergarten and had a wide acquaintance throughout that state in public school circles. She possessed many friends and was a woman of high character. The deceased was the daughter of the late Hiram Ashbrook of Johnston and before going west lived with her mother at Pataskala. She was an aunt of Perry Ashbrook of Alexandria, a first cousin of Congressman William M. Ashbrook and of M. P. Ashbrook of Greenville. Miss Ashbrook visited with Miss Alice Ashbrook of this city a few years ago.

Washington, April 11.—The president today nominated the following postmasters for Ohio: Arkison B. Pond, of New London, and Charles E. Hixon, at Leesburg.

POINTS REGARDING THE CENSUS

The census begins April 15 and must be completed in thirty days. The enumerators for Licking county have been appointed and are ready to begin business next Friday. Be ready to answer their questions promptly.

The enumerators will wear a badge inscribed "United States Census, 1910."

The law requires every adult person to furnish the prescribed information, but also provides that it shall be treated confidentially, so that no injury can come to any person from answering the questions.

The census bureau, prior to April 15, will distribute to every farm owner and tenant in this state, a blank or schedule containing the census questions relative to farm operations and equipment. This should be filled up, if possible, not later than the morning of April 15, but if anyone has been unable to fill it up by that time, he should do it as soon afterwards as he can.

People who do not speak English or who do not understand the schedule completely should get help from others, if possible, in filling it up. The president has issued a proclamation, calling on all citizens to cooperate with the census and assuring them that it has nothing to do with taxation, army or jury service, compulsory school attendance, regulation of immigration, or enforcement of any law, and that no one can be injured by answering the inquiries.

It is of the utmost importance that the farm census of this state be complete and correct.

Therefore every farm owner and tenant should promptly, fully and accurately fill up the "Advance Farm Schedule" and carefully preserve it for the enumerator when he calls.

FAMOUS MURDER TRIAL

death of her brother-in-law. She told of Doctor Hyde's visit to the house, of Colonel Hinton's death, of Colonel Swope's death a few days later and of her son, Christian's death. Then she related the story of the typhoid which attacked every member of the household. The defense sought to bring in Charles Hatted Jordan, a Chilean "quack doctor," into the case, but this move was considered so far from bearing on the actual charge that he was not called before the grand jury. It is admitted that he wanted on the Swope family, but his prescriptions were said to have been harmless.

A curious feature of the case is that the Swope millions are being used both to prosecute and defend the charges against Doctor Hyde. The executors and heirs of the Swope estate are supplying money to aid the prosecution, while Mrs. Hyde has mortgaged her inheritance to fight for the liberty of her husband.

Most of the members of the family who will testify against Doctor Hyde were alleged to be victims of his typhoid fever germs. Evidence was introduced before the coroner's inquest that Hyde had visited the office of the city bacteriologist and, as a reputable physician, had no trouble in getting a typhoid fever culture, sufficient for the inoculation of hundreds.

The case has become more and more involved since Colonel Swope's death, a suit for slander against Attorney Paxton, executor of the estate, being but one of the phases. On this account it has gained wide publicity and it is certain that it will be days before a jury of unprejudiced men can be secured. With this in mind, Judge Latshaw has summoned two full panels and the examination of the veniremen was started as soon as the case was called.
